

Dermatology

Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor

The University of California, San Diego, Department of Dermatology (<http://dermatology.ucsd.edu>) is committed to academic excellence and diversity within the faculty, staff, and student body. We are recruiting for CLINICAL ACADEMIC DERMATOLOGISTS or PEDIATRIC DERMATOLOGISTS to join our successful team in San Diego.

UCSD Dermatology is dedicated to rendering quality patient-centered care, and excellence in education and research. We have a rapidly growing, robust clinical practice in multiple locations providing General Dermatology, Dermatopathology, Cosmetic Dermatology, Procedural Dermatology, Mohs Surgery, and Pediatric Dermatology services. Our team is comprised of outstanding faculty and staff committed to clinical work and jointly sharing education and quality initiatives.

The successful candidates will be expected to provide the diagnoses and the treatment of a full spectrum of skin disorders with special emphasis on an area of interest to the candidate. The successful candidates will also be responsible to provide excellent clinical care, quality patient care, mentorship, and teaching to students, residents, and fellows in both clinical and academic medicine settings.

Candidates must have an MD, MD/Ph.D. in health-related fields, or equivalent. Candidates must have or be eligible for a California medical license or equivalent certification/permit as determined by the California Medical Board. Candidates must be board certified or eligible by the American Board of Dermatology.

Candidates must also have experience practicing Dermatology in both outpatient and inpatient settings and have experience in clinical care and education.

Candidates with a focus on Pediatric Dermatology must have completed a Pediatric Dermatology fellowship.

Candidates with engagement in other academic pursuits, such as medical writing, lectures, and clinical research are preferred. Candidates with EPIC/EMR familiarity are also preferred.
